Lakhs of farmers support reforms: SC panel

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, 23 NOVEMBER

Member of the Supreme Court appointed committee on farm laws, Anil Ghanawat, on Tuesday wrote to the apex court to release their committee's report and also said he would mobilise lakhs of farmers who support farm reforms, to Delhi.

Ghanawat's Committee has submitted a report in connection with the three farm laws, which PM Narendra Modi had announced to repeal on 19 November.

The Shetkari Sanghatana leader from Maharashtra reached Delhi on Monday and said a meeting with another member of the panel, agriculture economist, Ashok Gulati, "I have written a letter to the Supreme Court asking it to take up the issue of farm laws as soon as possible."

Our report: Now that the three laws are going to be repealed, this report can play an educational role," Ghanawat said.

Whether or not the Committee will bring out that report in public by itself will be decided later, he said.

The Supreme Court had appointed the three-member committee headed by Justice Ghanawat and Gulati, the third member is PK Joshi - in January this year while staying in the three farm laws. The Committee had submitted the report in March after a wide multi-stakeholder consultation.

However, since then neither did the apex court make use of any of its recommendations nor was the report made public.

Ghanawat had, in September, written to the then Chief Justice of India, to release the report so that its recommendations can be used by the government for resolving the agitation of the farmers that had turned widespread with even violence disturbing at some places. This is Ghanawat's second letter after his first in September to the apex court.

Explaining that he and his team never wanted to put farmers against farmers and therefore never took to streets till late, Ghanawat said, however, now that the PM has announced to repeal the laws, we will take to the streets if needed.

Commenting on the Samyukt Kisan Morcha's demand to legalise Minimum Support Price (MSP) along with cancelling the three laws, Ghanawat said, "MSP is not the answer. It can never be. Farming needs to diversify. Look at progressive farmers in Maharashtra - farmers are doing dairy, fisheries, poultry and orchards."

Capt connived with Akalis & BJP to ruin Punjab: Channi

CHANDIGARH, 23 NOVEMBER

Punjab chief minister Charanjit Singh Channi on Tuesday slammed the former Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh for conniving with Akalis and Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) to harm the interests of the state.

Channi said during his tenure Amarinder secured the interests of the Badal family, the CM said, but he failed to protect the interests of Punjab.

He said due to Congress' MLAs have ousted him from the chair of Punjab. Channi said the new party headed by Amarinder is also aimed at benefiting the Shiromani Akali Dal and BJP, thereby harming the interests of the state.

Accusing the Akalis of ignoring the interests of the Scheduled Caste (SC), the CM said Akalis have had an unholy alliance with BSP and has deliberately allotted them weak seats. He said that in these seats the Akalis are doing good in winning these seats. Channi said the primary motive is to ensure that interests of the SC community are harmed.

Training guns against the Delhi CM Arvind Kejriwal, the CM said, the BJP is a rumour monger who is least bothered about the state. He said Kejriwal is only making hollow promises whereas his government is delivering good governance and clean administration to the people. Channi asked the people to not get misled by the "tail claims of Kejriwal and company."
